

Successful Private Members' Bills since 1983-84

Parliamentary Information List

Standard Note: SN/PC/04568

Last updated: 17 June 2014

Author: Department of Information Services

---

Government business has precedence in Parliament and the majority of bills considered by both Houses are Government bills. There are however opportunities for private Members, ie back-bench Members with no governmental responsibilities, to introduce legislation. With limited time available for the consideration of Private Members' Bills (PMBs), generally only bills with Government and cross-party support are successful.

The time allocated for PMBs is given in Standing Order No. 14 (9) which governs the arrangement and timing of public and private business:

14. (9) Private Members' bills shall have precedence over government business on thirteen Fridays in each session to be appointed by the House.

In the House of Commons, there are three ways a backbencher can introduce a bill. Links to the relevant Standing Orders (SO) are given below:

By ballot – SO No 14 \(9\) \(10\) \(11\)

10 Minute Rule – SO No 23

Ordinary Presentation – SO No 57

Peers can also present Private Members Bills in the House of Lords. If they complete their passage through the House of Lords, they require a Member of the House of Commons to sponsor them in the Commons.

For more information on procedure for public bills in Parliament, including the various types of PMB, see Commons Library Note SN06507 Public Bills in Parliament.

For a summary of PMBs and Government Bills introduced, see SN02283 Summary of public bills introduced since 1983-84.

The Parliamentary Information List series covers various topics relating to Parliament; they include Bills, Committees, Constitution, Debates, Divisions, The House of Commons, Parliament and procedure.

Also available:

Research papers – impartial briefings on major bills and other topics of public and parliamentary concern, available as printed documents and on the Intranet and Internet.

Standard notes – a selection of less formal briefings, often produced in response to frequently asked questions, are accessible via the Internet.

Guides to Parliament – The House of Commons Information Office answers enquiries on the work, history and membership of the House of Commons. It also produces a range of publications about the House which are available for free in hard copy on request

Education website – a web site for children and schools with information and activities about Parliament.

Any comments or corrections to the lists would be gratefully received and should be sent to: Parliamentary Information Lists Editor, Parliament & Constitution Centre, House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA.
